Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back, it has been great to see so many of you at parents' evenings. If you weren't able to meet your child's teacher and would like to, please contact them via eschools to try and make an appointment.

There are lots of things coming up this month.

Non-fiction November - we are encouraging children to explore information books as well as their story books.

Empathy Action Month - A big focus on Empathy in assemblies which is also reinforced throughout the school.

Week Beginning 11th November: Anti-bullying week. This year's theme is Choose Respect

Monday 11th November - Remembrance Day. We will be having an assembly which will include some time to respect the national silence.

Tuesday 12th November - Michael Rosen Day. This is the first national day celebrating the fantastic children's writer Michael Rosen. We were very lucky that in 2010 Michael opened our school!

Wednesday 13th November - Positive Noticing Day - as in previous years the children will come home wearing a label displaying a positive statement that someone else has made about them.

Friday 15th November - non-uniform Children in Need

Friday 22nd November - non-uniform - Jam jars

Friday 29th November - non-uniform - Bottles

Saturday 30th November - School Fayre

In the news this week

This year, Anti-Bullying Week takes place on 11th-15th November with the theme, 'Choose Respect'. As part of the week, Odd Socks Day is on Tuesday 12th November, with odd socks being worn to celebrate what makes us all unique. There are many other ways schools are raising awareness and taking action to tackle bullying, including several pupils working towards becoming Anti-Bullying Ambassadors.

Things to talk about at home ...

- What do you know about Anti-Bullying Week?
- This year's theme is 'Choose Respect', what is your definition of respect? Ask others at home.
- This week's story explores the role of Anti-Bullying Ambassadors. Do you think this a good way of tackling bullying? Can you think of any other strategies?
